

Title of Project	Description of Project	School	Contact Name	# of Students Served	Amount Funded
Battle of the Books	A student motivated program that encourages students to voluntarily form teams, read award winning books and participate in battles - tournaments that begin at the school and end in the LWSD online Battle.	Einstein Elementary	Anne Sandbo	150	$ 354.00
Planet Rhythm!	Exposing students to world rhythms and cultures through the integration of traditional instruments, stories, folk dances and songs from four countries - Brazil, Indonesia, Tibet and Australia - into the music curriculum.	Mann Elementary	Darryl Pernat	420	$ 1,500.00
Expansion of Sensory Resource Room	Provide experiential learning opportunities with implementation of "best practices" approach of "sensory diets" through expanded access of a sensory room to all students who could benefit.	McAuliffe Elementary	Tracey Miller, Brenda Yoshino	120	$ 1,500.00
Star Power	Enhancing the Lake Washington School District anti-bullying curriculum with an educational theatrical performance for students K-6 called "Star Power".	Thoreau Elementary	Sharon Damon	350	$ 550.00
Bringing Books and Boys Together	Strategically target boys to engage in reading books that address their needs and interests through marketing appropriate books written for their gender and building them into the current Accelerated Reader program offered at the school.	Frost Elementary	Lisette Cauble	403	$ 1,359.00
Nina Laden, Author and Illustrator Visits Audubon Students	Classroom workshops by Nina Laden, award-winning local author and illustrator of children's books for children, to provide exposure to a career in writing and how to develop your own story. After her visit students will continue to develop their stories in their classroom.	Audubon Elementary	Elisabeth Wicks	450	$ 1,500.00
An Instrument for All	Improve the musical experience, skills and student opportunity to learn in the classroom with additional barred instruments (tenor, soprano and bass) that will be used for musical composition and teaching important concepts. in the hands of each child.	Frost Elementary	Katie Sikorra	403	$ 1,296.00

Visual Thinking Strategies	Implement school-wide a student-centered, research based education method, Visual Thinking Strategies, that uses art to build students' capacities to observe, think, listen and communicate; improve critical thinking skills such as flexibility, observation and interpretation.	Bell Elementary	Judy Cook, Michelle Lustgarten	377	$ 949.00
Getting Appropriately Leveled Books into the Hand of our Primary Students	Through the use of an already established guided-reading group program, provide a diverse assortment of appropriately leveled-books (KEEP) for students to best be able to adequately develop necessary reading skills at their pace.	Muir Elementary	Kathy Fleming	160	$ 1,411.00
Language, Vocabulary and Content Building for ELL Students	Enhance English Language Learners general educational classroom experience by providing access to research-based, high-caliber leveled science and social studies books , "Exploring English", designed for ELL students and aligned with curriculum topics.	Muir Elementary	Laurie Gogic	120	$ 1,385.00
Bridge to Grade-Level content Reading for Struggling Readers	Enhance the science social studies curriculum with appropriate-leveled books for struggling readers to directly enhance their ability to understand and participate in the general education curriculum.	Muir Elementary	Gerry Pappas	48	$ 1,462.00
Exposure to World-Class Art	Provide students the opportunity to experience art that is personally meaningful at the world-class Seattle Art Museum by providing bus transportation and docent fee for two art field trips as a enrichment to the art curriculum being taught in the classroom.	Lakeview Elementary	Linda Hughes	100	$ 1,200.00
World Music Drumming	Enrich the African/Latin drumming unit with new curricular material and create a hands-on learning experience using drums.	Mead Elementary	Dennis Best	200	$ 1,500.00
Improving Reading through Bilingual Books and Parent Involvement	Strengthening ELL students' abilities to be able to read by providing implementing a bilingual book program where children are sent home with a book in English and Spanish to read with their parents at home on a weekly basis.	Twain Elementary	Renee Levine	17	$ 398.00
An Arts Explosion	Making African American History come alive with a theatrical performance about Harriet Tubman followed up with a workshop for students.	Juanita Elementary	Kathleen Marshall	320	$ 650.00

Enhance Phonics Ability for Students with Special Needs	Target specific learning needs of students who receive specially designed instruction and in the special needs program through the delivery of a strong research-based phonics curriculum, Read	Smith Elementary	Kelly Choma	15	$ 1,500.00
Get Students Active!	Enrich the PE experience with a variety of racquet sports, volleyball and other net games created by staff. Grant monies will be used to purchase a complete economical net and racquet system.	Einstein Elementary	Cheryl Plate	500	$ 1,495.00
Enhance PE with Water Safety and Swimming Instruction	Water safety and swim lesson program to provide life-saving skills and empower confidence through physical activity.	Redmond Elementary	Rozalyn Strong	46	$ 1,160.00
Strengthen Math Skills for Struggling Students	Provide an individualized sequential math program, KeyMath, that targets struggling/special education students' specific needs through quality diagnosis and appropriately-designed instruction with direct intervention.	Redmond Elementary	Cassie Clapham	75	$ 1,500.00
Wow! What a Small World: Introduction to the Microscope	Students discover a whole new scientific world by using microscopes to enrich the Foss Science Kit experience.	Redmond Elementary	Jan Wilson	52	$ 1,460.00
Read About It in Science!	Give students the opportunity for independent research and exploration by supplementing the 2nd grade Foss Science Kits with topic related leveled-science books.	Lakeview Elementary	Cori Fraley	57	$ 900.00
Lunch Buddy Mentor Program	Support the development of a new Lunch Buddy program by providing games and craft supplies for defined student/mentor activities to build important	Lakeview Elementary	Jessica Brown-Tiffany	50	$ 300.00
Right Books for the Right Kids: A Primary Leveled Library	Implement effective leveled-reading small group instruction for emergent readers in the primary grades to help develop solid reading skills through the provision of appropriate reading books.	Bell Elementary	Monica Adair/Julie Banchemo	200	$ 1,225.00
Appreciation and Concepts of Art: A Fine Arts Curriculum for Elementary Students	Implement a series of nine lessons in Fine Arts to enhance students' understanding and appreciation of art and further their incorporation of this into their everyday life and the school's curriculum.	Rose Hill Elementary	Jason Reisenauer, Diana McKinney, Jennifer Livingston, Ross McCullough	115	$ 1,500.00
Completing the Circle/Committing to Quality	Implementation of the LWSD-supported docent art curriculum for all students with all the required materials to expose kids to multiple art medias.	Rush Elementary	Peggy Hughes	400	$ 500.00

Read Outloud for Vocabulary and Comprehension!	Improve students reading skills in vocabulary acquisition and discussion through a targeted approach with "read aloud" books. .	Redmond Elementary	Paula Randolph	220	$ 1,500.00
Young Author's Author Visit	A celebration of Writing Month, to include a presentation and classroom visits by author Paul Owen Lewis, as well as students to write and publish their own work to be shared at a Young Author's Day.	Redmond Elementary	Gail Young	375	$ 1,400.00
Our Students, Our Schools, Our Music	Development of a strong multi-cultural focus in the music program through exploration of music from various world cultures, examination of songs, dances, and stories from these countries, parent-representative participation and development of a dance, song or musical piece for the multi-cultural night	Bell Elementary	Andrew Schmidt	383	$ 1,500.00
May I Have This Dance-Ballroom Dancing for 6th Graders!	Expand the music curriculum by providing students the opportunity to learn the history of Waltz and Salsa, the attributes that make up this music and then to be able to perform both dances.	McAuliffe Elementary	Janet Warren	100	$ 800.00
Intermediate Book Club	After-school book club for accelerated 4-6th graders to read and discuss "new release novel", develop an Accelerated Reader test and Book Talk CD for use by all students to promote book throughout the school.	Frost Elementary	Peggy Solum	12	$ 1,500.00
Kirkland Chamber Youth and Business Symposium and Future Business Leaders of America Competitions	Kirkland high school students will attend a business leadership symposium sponsored by the Kirkland Chamber of Commerce and several local businesses. LWSF provides transportation to ensure access for all students. In addition, the FBLA at Lake Washington High School will attend a regional and state conferences.	Lake Washington High School, Juanita High School, BEST and ICS	Rita Smith	80	$ 3,000.00
Drum line Percussion Club/Group	Student-led initiative to expand the high school music program to incorporate a drum line genre of percussion.	Juanita High	Mariko Lane, Chris Taylor	15	$ 3,000.00
Elementary Math Nights	Math Honor students will plan and implement "Family Math Nights" at elementary schools to facilitate the children's acquisition of thinking skills, foster a love of mathematics and to promote fun ways for skill practice.	Eastlake High	Jen Simon	130	$ 500.00

Robotics Team	Give 9th to 12th grade students the opportunity to design and build a robot for a national FIRST competition and to gain invaluable skills in the areas of math and science.	Eastlake High	Liz Sirjani	50	$ 3,000.00
Building Biotechnology Understanding at EHS	In conjunction with the University of Washington, introduce students to the field of biotechnology and provide opportunity to pursue independent study with community mentors and participation in a Biotech fair. If successful, project could become an elective at Eastlake modeled after a successful program at Juanita.	Eastlake High	Kristi Martinez	150	$ 3,000.00
The Silent Witness: Forensics	Motivate students to actively engage in science by integrating the study of forensics into the curriculum.	Futures School	Audrey Falkner	75	$ 3,000.00
Readers Workshop Model	Pilot the Readers Workshop Model through guided-reading groups where specific reading skills are taught, practiced independently and then while reading text in a small group. With books at each student's independent reading level they will be able to effectively practice these skills. a classroom library with age-appropriate materials that are at various grade levels in order to best address the specific reading needs of ELL students while engaging them in the joy of reading.	Redmond High	Melissa Routh	50	$ 3,000.00
Literacy Skill Development for ELL Students	Provide ELL students with a multi-leveled curriculum that will enhance the teaching of literacy skills to this challenging student population.	Redmond High	Ruth Schemmel	50	$ 3,000.00
African Art in Motion	Students experience the energy and beauty of SAM's African art collection by taking a tour and participating in a studio activity creating Kente cloth designs. Followed-up in the classroom with a mask making project using inspiration from the African masks viewed during the tour.	Inglewood Junior High	Jane Thomas	27	$ 526.00
Lake Washington Technical College Tour	Educational opportunities and career exploration are provided for students through a tour of the Lake Washington Technical College where they see how this might fit into their 4-year plan for high school.	Evergreen Junior High	Suzanne Swanigan	45	$ 275.00

Washington Tall Ship Sailing Experience and Band Concert	A student planned "Voyages of Discovery" sailing experience aboard a Washington Tall Ship with nautical themed band concert to be performed upon return.	Rose Hill Junior High	Angela Laulainen	31	$ 2,321.00
Future Business Leader of America Competitions	Students attend the Washington State FBLA Conference and that National FBLA competition where they develop business acumen and are exposed to valuable business skills, connections and experiences not otherwise available.	International Community School	Lori Zebrack-Smith	20	$ 3,000.00
Heard Any Good Books Lately?	Enhance the literary experience, improve vocabulary and increase fluency of struggling readers with audio books in the classrooms and school library.	Evergreen Junior High	Shauna Yusko	135	$ 2,950.00